M & M's

Thanks to all who came to the school musical Buggy Malone. I had a great time with the kids from the school who did an excellent job in singing and acting in this years musical. The young people in our school are very talented and so much fun to be involved with. They really are a blessing for us here in the parish. I salute all those who took so much time to practice to get everything right, all the students in the play, those who helped to make the nights successful: the moms and dads and teachers who put the wardrobe together, the make up artists, the props people, the set designers, stage managers, the musicians, refreshment servers and ticket sales. A thanks to our maintenance staff for all the set up and cleaning up, and a thanks to Eric Stachelski who directed the play and Simon Donoghue for the music direction. It was truly a joy to work with all of you.

PENNIES FROM HEAVEN

On May 6th we will have our annual auction to support the school. It is a great night even if you do not end up bidding for anything, to just be there and share in the excitement of a frenzied auction bidding. I hope that many of you will be there that night to share in the festivities and help to support our school.

We are in need of items to auction off. If you have items that you think others would like to buy through an auction please give Tom Lasley a call at the school 949-9250. We are looking for all kinds of items. Building materials: sheets of plywood, shingles, rolls of tar paper or ice and water shield, barrel of paint, load of gravel or a load or two of fill dirt. Office equipment: copiers, computers, fax machines, reams of paper. Home furnishings: stoves, refrigerators, chairs, tables, carpeting, rugs, pictures, china sets, silverware sets. Car repair certificates. If you are a professional and can donate some time like a free hour or two of legal service, or a free physical exam from a doctor, or a few hours of carpentry work, or a free financial consultation. Also a new car or a new boat are great things to auction off. Even as a teacher to give some free tutoring for a family. Maybe you might want to donate a years tuition for a student at the school. These are just some of the items that have done well at the auctions before. I know that you can all use your imagination and come up with something that you could donate. We can never have too many items for the auction.

This week we should fast from false gods. Jesus is angry at those in the temple who are making money on the ones coming to worship. Selling animals at top rice, changing coins at exorbitant rates, and basically "making money" their god. There are many gods vying for first place in our lives. They might be obviously false gods like addiction, sexual pleasure seeking, shopping until we drop, love of money more than people. Or our false gods might be good things: home, family, spouse, health, work or community and parish service. How do we know when we are following our God-given passion and when we are dealing with a false god? "When in doubt, check it out." Take it to honest prayer and ask God if this devotion is for His good or our own good. That usually answers the question.

The Sunday 6:00 pm Mass is urgently in need of Lectors. Volunteers may call the Church office 949-6797 or Suzanne Howden at 949-0539 (days)

Pre-marriage classes

Saturday March 25th 9:am — 3:pm

Sunday March 26th 12:Noon — 5:pm

Usually the classes are on two Saturdays in a row, but because of special circumstances we will have to have it two days in a row. So if you need a pre-marriage class before you get married please set these dates aside, take off the time from work, and call the rectory office 949-6797, to let us know if you will be there. The next class is not until October 2006. All couples getting married in the Catholic Church must have a pre-marriage class. So if you are getting married during this year 2006, please register for these classes.

The Holy Father's Prayer Intention for March

That young people who are searching for the sense of life may be understood, respected and accompanied with patience and love.

That, throughout the Church, there may grow that shared missionary awareness which favours the collaboration and exchange of those who work in the missions.

THE SCRUTINIES

This weekend at the 8:30am Mass we will celebrate the "First Scrutiny" for those in our catechumenal process who are preparing for initiation at the Easter Vigil. The following week at the 8:30 am Mass we will celebrate the Second Scrutiny and on the 2nd of April at the 8:30am Mass, the Third Scrutiny.

The scrutinies are also called "Major Exorcisms." As such, they are among the most ancient prayers in the Christian Liturgical tradition. As early as the second century, Christian communities would help those who had been chosen for Baptism to prepare for their initiation by laying on hands and by prayers for protection and deliverance from evil.

Today we continue to celebrate these powerful rituals, convinced that those about to enter into a covenant with God in Christ stand in need of prayers for deliverance and protection. We also understand today that our prayers for protection from evil are not limited to those formally engaged in the catechumenal process. Just as our entire community is called to journey with the catechumens throughout this Lenten season, we recognize the need we all share for freedom from evil and its effects.

Your prayers and your support are important for our sisters and brothers who have been journeying for so many months towards the sacraments of initiation. Please continue to hold them in your Lenten prayers the elect who count on you for support in making their faith journey.
