M & M's

I come to the garden alone,
While the dew is still on the roses;
And the voice I hear, falling on my ear,
The Son of God discloses.

And He walks with me and he talks with me,
And He tells me I am His own,
And the joy we share as we tarry there,
None other has ever known.

He speaks, and the sound of His voice
Is so sweet the birds hush their singing;
And the melody that He gave to me
Within my heart is ringing.

And He walks with me and he talks with me,
And He tells me I am His own,
And the joy we share as we tarry there,
None other has ever known.

I'd stay in the garden with Him
Although the night around me be falling;
But He bids me go, through the voice of woe,
His voice to me is calling.

We joyfully welcome all our new members of the church at the Easter Vigil

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Pennies from Heaven Auction—May 6

The pennies from Heaven Auction is May 6 and we urgently need prizes to ensure the Auction's success. Remember, prizes can be procured from just about anywhere! Every business you patronize is a prime candidate (hair salons, dry cleaners, retail stores...). Even your closets or garage may have like-new items you no longer want, but that would be an ideal prize for the Auction.

Should you be successful, (as we hope that you will be!) just drop the items off at the church or school offices. Call Tom Lasley at 949-9250 or 916-8584 for any questions.

Thank you!

The Holy Father's Prayer Intention for April

General: That the individual, social and political rights of women may be respected in every nation.

Missionary: That the Church in China may carry out its evangelizing mission serenely and in full freedom.

DIVINE MERCY

The world is in need of God's mercy in these turbulent times and the Church has designated the First Sunday after Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday. Parishioners are encouraged to pray the NOVENA OF DIVINE MERCY which started on Good Friday, April 14, 2006, and to join in Eucharistic Adoration of Our Lord on the Feast of Divine Mercy, Sunday, April 23, 2006 immediately after the 8:30 a.m. mass until 5:00 p.m.

Thank you for your generosity and good stewardship for all that God has given to you.

This Week...

To believe that Jesus rose from the dead is to believe in something that never happened before. Minds have to adjust to seeing things differently. Old ways of thinking have to be thrown out and new ways of thinking brought in. The Resurrection happened, Jesus is the Messiah, and the only remaining trace of death is the folded linen cloths left in the tomb.

For Your Reflection

Jesus' tomb was empty. It had even been cleaned up. The napkin and linen cloths were folded and rolled up neatly. Everything was left in order and taken care of. Jesus was clearly finished with this grave. No more of this "death business" for him. He left it totally behind, and was fully alive, never to know the sufferings of death again.

Have you ever made a transition in life? Did you ever take a step and know that a part of your former life was totally behind you? What happened? How did you feel? Did you find yourself trying to take care of things or leave things in order in any way? Obviously Mary, Peter, and the other disciple were close friends with one another and with Jesus. It is easy to picture the three of them running to the tomb together to be sure of what actually happened.

Who are the Marys and Peters in your life? Have you ever hurried to get to some important place? Have you ever struggled with someone else to figure out what was really happening in an important situation that affected you or a friend of yours? What happened and how did that affect your relationship?

Alleluia!
Christ is risen, indeed!

"Light dispels darkness. Good triumphs over evil. Life conquers death. Today we discover that Jesus IS risen! Alleluia!"

The Religious Education and Youth Ministries would like to wish everyone in the St. Ignatius family a Happy and Holy Easter.

O'Neil Miller, Jeremy Rice and Tristan Abbott
