“ Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures”.

The only way that one can truly appreciate the Mystery of Easter is by asking that like the Apostles our minds may also be opened. We need to be open to the powerful message that our God loves each of us with such tenderness and compassion that He would see His own Son suffer crucifixion and death so that we might have hope and salvation. We need to be open to the possibility that now we in our turn are called to model this same self emptying love in relation to those with whom we share life. And yet perhaps one of the greatest challenges of this is for us to be open to receiving this kind of love from others and from God. Often people struggle to accept that they are loved, and yet, we must all come to realize that the Easter Proclamation really comes to life in our world to the degree that we can open ourselves to receiving the Good News of God's Unconditional Love for All. So, let us carry the Easter Proclamation forward by demonstrating our openness to the message in our everyday lives. Easter is not a season that we complete, rather it is an invitation that we are called to live throughout our year. And each time we open ourselves to the possibility that our pain and suffering are being transformed into new life and hope for our future, we give witness to our world of the Power of the Resurrection, and the True meaning of the Easter Season.

Mother's Day Cards Available Now!

This year we are offering Mother's Day Cards and Mass Intentions for our masses on Mother's Day—May 14th. If you wish to have your mother remembered in our masses on Mother's Day we ask that, for a CI $5 offering, you fill out one of the envelopes outside church or in the parish office. You can have the masses offered for your mother or grandmother if she is alive or has died. If she is living, then you will receive a card that you can give her for mother's day. We will publish a list of all those that we are offering our masses for on the 14th of May in the parish bulletin that weekend. All the monies offered for these masses will be going to the Dorothy Rice Scholarship Fund to help students in our school with their tuition.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Pennies from Heaven Auction—May 6

The pennies from Heaven Auction is May 6 and we urgently need prizes to ensure the Auction's success. Remember, prizes can be procured from just about anywhere! Every business you patronize is a prime candidate (hair salons, dry cleaners, retail stores...). Even your closets or garage may have like-new items you no longer want, but that would be an ideal prize for the Auction.

Should you be successful, (as we hope that you will be!) just drop the items off at the church or school offices. Call Tom Lasley at 949-9250 or 916-8584 for any questions.

Thank you!

The Holy Father's Prayer Intention for May

General: That the abundance of the gifts the Holy Spirit bestows on the Church may contribute to the growth of peace and justice in the world.

Missionary: That in the mission countries those responsible for the public institutions may, with suitable laws, promote and defend human life from its conception to its natural termination..

Thank you for your generosity and good stewardship for all that God has given to you.

This Week...

It is such a struggle to turn away from sin. Jesus knows that. We try to follow his ways, but we sometimes fail. And we are deeply troubled. That is where repentance and forgiveness come in. They are as basic to our needs as food. And Jesus is concerned with both when he asks, "Why are you troubled, and have you anything to eat?"

For Your Reflection

Jesus shows up at a gathering of friends, and the first thing he does is ask what might be troubling them, and whether there is anything to eat. Eating is an important part of sharing time with friends. Who would ever think of having a party without having food? Jesus knew how important sharing food with friends is.

When Jesus appeared, his friends were shocked. They felt joy, fear, confusion, and disbelief all rolled up together. It was too good to be true. Did you ever experience anything that was too good to be true? What happened? How did you and your friends, or our family, react? What did you do to celebrate?

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Sunday School and First Communion classes will resume today, April 30th at 9:45am.

JESUS DAY

The first Jesus Day Retreat for First Communicants will be on Saturday, May 06 from 9:00am to 12:30pm at the St. Ignatius Prep School.
