NOVENA TO THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Beginning this Thursday evening at 7:pm we will start a 9 day novena to our Blessed Mother in honor of the feasts of the Immaculate Conception and Our Lady of Guadalupe. The Novena will last one hour with Scripture, Songs, Reflection, and two 10 minute periods of silence to pray the rosary or silently reflect in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. On Saturday and Sunday the Novena will begin at 4:pm. All other nights at 7:pm. Please come to join us as we begin the Advent Season in preparing to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ.

Keep up the good work of selling those Christmas Fund Raising Tickets.

This celebration of the Solemnity of Christ the King marks the end of the liturgical year. Next Sunday we begin Advent and a new year. One of the symbols of Advent is the Advent Wreath. This custom has migrated from Christian homes into the Church. But all of you are encouraged to have an Advent Wreath in your home also to remind ourselves of the nature of the season as a time of waiting. For prayers on each day of Advent you can go to:

www.cptryon.org/prayer/adx/adwreath.html

And you will find prayers and blessings for the Advent Wreath for each day of Advent. It seems that this season of Advent is one that we have had before. Having come full circle throughout the year again things seem to look quite familiar. When we read the scriptural selections for yet another Advent, we might wonder if there is anything new under the sun. We've met all the protagonists of this season and can anticipate what John the Baptizer, Paul, Luke, Jeremiah, Isaiah and the other prophets are going to say even before their words are proclaimed in our midst.

As we make our way from the church to the marketplace, to work and to play, we quickly realize that we have become veterans of this season. We will make the lists and do the shopping; we will wrap the presents and decorate the tree. We will write the cards and bake the cookies. We will attend the pageants and parties and when the Christmas story is read, we will mouth the words that have become so indelibly engraved upon our memories: "... the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us, and we have seen his glory: the glory of an only Son coming from the Father, filled with enduring love" (John 1:14). In that moment and by God's grace the words we have spoken and heard for decades will challenge us to shake off what may have become rote and routine and awaken to the ever-startling and fresh newness of God, present and alive among us!

The difference between the passing of yet another year, like so many other years, and the promise of a new day dawning is Jesus Christ. From the moment the Word became flesh and blood, the course of human history was forever altered. God's gift of Jesus has communicated new meaning and new direction to every individual human story. History, because of God's word to us in Jesus, is no longer a cyclic repetition of similar events but a linear movement with a beginning, a purpose and a goal, all of which originate and are subsumed in God.

Each Advent then, signals a return to the beginning but it is a NEW beginning. Communities of faith start all over again each Advent. In the midst of a world where God is seldom felt, we yearn to experience God again, for the first time. The Word is a living entity, speaking a NEW message, in a NEW manner, in a NEW year, to a people who long to be NEW again. Each Sunday of Advent the words calls us to reach beyond rote and routine and to move from cyclical rehearsal to personal breakthrough.

Weekly Offertory Envelopes

Please write name, address & telephone number on the initial offering envelope or on any of the other envelope for record purposes.

BIBLE STUDY—The Book of Exodus

The Parish's Bible Study series will resume on Monday, January 15 at 6:30pm at the St. Ignatius Catholic School.

We will continue using the Little Rock Study and this time we will be focusing on the Book of Exodus from the Old Testament. The study will run for 10 straight weeks.

The Book of Exodus is the central event of the Old Testament. Its themes of liberation, wilderness, Passover, covenant, and God's dwelling are central for the whole Bible. The passage from bondage to freedom is the journey of all God's people.

This time, the resources will attract a cost of $10 per person for both the Commentary and the Study Guide. If you are interested, please contact O'Neil Miller at 949-6797 between now and December 10, so the resources can be ordered.

Choir Practice

We already are into our preparations for our Christmas Schedule. If you were in our choir before or would like to be part of our celebrations, please attend our weekly rehearsals which follow immediately after 8.30am Mass on Sunday, in the church. This year, as in past years, we hope to make it a 'multi-national celebration', with music represented from all of our nations.

EVERYBODY is welcome!!

PARISH CHRISTMAS DINNER

The Catholic Women's League will be hosting the Parish Christmas Dinner on Sunday December 17. We are asking for donations of decorations which can be left in the church office. Ladies—we will be calling around for the usual donations of food for the dinner and help with decorating and setting up the hall.

This year we will ask the children to bring in gifts to exchange among themselves. More details will be given at a later date.
