M & M's

In the lovely book, Chicken Soup for the Soul, there's a story about a man who came out of his office one Christmas Morning and found a little boy from a nearby housing project looking with great admiration at the man's new vehicle. The little boy asked, "Does this car belong to you?" And the man said, "Yes, in fact my brother gave it to me for Christmas. I've just gotten it." With that, the little boy's eyes widened. He said, "You mean to say that somebody gave it to you? And you didn't have to pay for it?" And the man said, "That's right. My brother gave it to me as a gift." With that the little boy let out a long sigh and said, "Boy, I would really like..." And the man fully expected the boy to say, "I would like to have a brother like that, who would give me such a beautiful car," but instead the man was amazed when the little boy said, "Wow! I would like to be that kind of brother. I wish I could give that kind of car to my little brother." Somehow that child understood the secret of Jesus' new commandment of love, which Jesus gave to his apostles during his last discourse, as described in today's gospel: "Love one another as I have loved you." True love consists not in "getting" something from the lover, but in "giving" something to the loved one. A very familiar type of this love is a mother's love for her child.

Another little story: Two World War II veterans, a German and an American, were attending a three-day seminar. As they were washing dishes one evening after dinner they exchanged stories about the war. The American told of the horror he felt as a young pilot during the particularly savage bombing of a city in Germany. He had orders to bomb a hospital, which he would know by the huge Red Cross painted on the roof. The German—somewhat shocked by the story—revealed that his wife had been giving birth to their baby in that very hospital when it was being bombed, resulting in the death of the mother and the baby. After a few minutes of silence the two men fell into each other's arms weeping. Imagine being in heaven, at the end of the world, where we fall weeping upon one another, waves of reconciliation breaking upon us as we adjust ourselves to this dimension of pure love which Jesus demands from his followers in today's gospel passage.

Today's readings are about new things: the New Jerusalem, a new heaven and earth and a new commandment. Jesus has added a new element to the Old Testament command of love by telling us that the true test of discipleship is to love other people in the same way that he has loved us. Hence, the renewal of Christian life means a radical change of vision, of our priorities in life, with new attitudes, new values and new standards of relating to God, to other people and indeed, to our whole environment. For most of us "renewal" is something that comes at different stages in our life, each time bringing us to a deeper understanding, insight and commitment.

St. Jerome relates of the Apostle John that, when he became old he used to be carried to the churches and assemblies, everywhere repeating the words, "Little children, love one another." His disciples, wearied by the constant repetition, asked him why he always said this. "Because," he replied, "It is the Lord's commandment; and if it only be fulfilled, it is enough." John knew that the greatest truth was most apt to be forgotten because it was taken for granted. This is one of the greatest calamities in the Christian Church and one that causes division.

One Sunday a priest was finishing up a series on marriage. At the end of the service he was giving out small wooden crosses to each married couple. He said, "Place this cross in the room in which you fight the most and you will be reminded of Jesus' new commandment and you won't argue as much." One woman came up after the service and said, "You'd better give me five of those."

We are planning to make our own airline and accommodation reservations from this end, instead of through the States. An approximate price will be announced in the next 2 weeks. A deadline for registration fees ($210 CI) is fast approaching. This is to be paid to the planning committee in Sydney.

SPECIAL ANGEL

Once upon a time, there was a child ready to be born. One day the child asked GOD, "They tell me you are going to send me to the earth tomorrow" but how am I going to live there being so small and helpless? GOD replied, "Among the many angels, I have chosen one for you" She will be waiting for you and will take care of you. "But", said the child, here in Heaven I don't do anything else but sing and smile. That's what I need to be happy. GOD said, "Your angel will sing for you everyday, and you will feel your angel's love and be happy". And, said the child, How am I going to be able to understand when people talk to me, If I don't know the language that man talk. That's easy, GOD said, "Your angel will tell you the most beautiful and sweet words you will ever hear, and with much patience and care, your angel will teach you how to speak." The child looked up at GOD saying, and what am I going to do when I want to talk to you? GOD smiled at the child saying, "Your angel will place your hands together and will teach you how to pray" The child said, I've heard on earth there are bad men, who will protect me? GOD put his arm around the child saying, "Your angel will defend you—even if it means risking life". The child looked sad, saying, but I will always be sad because I will not see you anymore, GOD hugged the child, "Your angel will always talk to you about me and will teach you the way to come back to me, even though I will always be next to you". At that moment there was much peace in Heaven, but voices from earth could already be heard. The child in a hurry, asked softly, Oh GOD, If I am about to leave now please tell me my angel's name. GOD replied, "Your angel's name is of no importance.... You will simply call her "MOMMY"

This coming Mother's Day Celebration, if you wish to express your special love and appreciation to your "Mommy" (living or dead), with a minimum donation of CI$5.00, a special mass will be offered for them on Mother's Day. Cards available after Mass and at the Parish Office throughout the week. Proceeds benefit the Dorothy Rice Scholarship Fund.
