Today at an 11:am Mass we celebrate First Communion for the young people of our parish. We congratulate these young people in being ready to receive the Body and Blood of Jesus for the first time. This is a special event in the lives of Catholics and we pray that these young people will be truly changed by receiving the presence of Jesus in their young bodies.

Next Weekend is Father's Day and Father's Day Cards and intentions for our masses are available after masses. Once again as on Father's Day we will publish all the names of the father's for whom are masses will be offered for on that weekend. You are asked to give a donation of CI$5 for a card or an intention for that day.

Today is the last of our Eucharistic Celebration after the Easter Season. Next Sunday we return to the Ordinary Time of the Year with the 11th Sunday of the Year. Today's feast of the Body and Blood of Christ can remind us that meals are more than opportunities to nourish our bodies; they are occasions to nourish our spirits with the presence of family and friends. The yearly Passover meal that Jesus shared with his apostles was a most sacred time to renew their belonging to God's chosen people and to each other. At the last Passover meal that Jesus shared with his friends, he left them a present of his presence.

Today we celebrate the present of his presence among us in the Eucharist. It celebrates "present" in two senses. First, as gift. The Eucharist is Christ's gift of self, his self-giving in his Body and Blood that we share, and in divine grace as we honor him in the Blessed Sacrament through our prayer and adoration.

The second sense of "present" is "now." Christ is with us now just as he was with the hungry people who shared the multiplied loaves and fishes. The presence of Christ is a real Body-and-Blood presence. A sacramental presence. It is His way of being-with-us, a personal presence that leads to adoration.
