October 28, 2007– 30th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"FOR ALL THAT HAS BEEN - THANKS, FOR ALL THAT WILL BE - YES"

Today, as I share my joy with you of celebrating the 30th Anniversary of my Priestly Ordination, I express my gratitude to God in the words of Mother Mary, "My soul rejoices because the Almighty has done great things for me".

Thirty (30) years is a long time and yet I have enjoyed every moment of it working in the vineyard of the Lord. I have found a lot of joy and fulfillment in my ministry working in different capacities in the past: as Rector, Spiritual Director, Parish Priest, Vocation Promoter, Retreat Director, Novice Master etc. Most of the years of my priestly life had been spent in training the seminarians aspiring to be priests.

My coming to Cayman was quite unexpected and came as a pleasant surprise. Today I complete one year and two months at St. Ignatius. I feel very happy to be part of this wonderful parish and offer my humble service to the vibrant faith community. I have all appreciation and gratitude for Fr. Paul, Fr. Mike, Deacon Joe, the parish staff and the parish community. Thank you for your love, care and hospitality.

In today's Gospel parable – "The Pharisee and the Publican" we see two contrasting attitudes: Pride and Humility. Through this parable Jesus warns us about the insufficiency of our boastful merits. A Christian should be like a ripening corn: as it ripens it bends and lowers itself to the ground. It is difficult to be humble, and yet it is the prayer of the humble that pierces the cloud and does not rest till it reaches its goal(Sir. 35/17).

Fr. Alex.

THIS WEEK'S READINGS/GOSPEL: THE PROUD PHARISEE AND THE HUMBLE SERVANT

Sirach 35:12-14,16-18—Sirach reminds us that God always hears the prayer of the poor, the oppressed, and the weak.

2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18—Paul reviews his life, telling Timothy that although he had been abandoned by many, still he fought the good fight, ran the good race, and is ready to be with Jesus.

Luke 18:9-14—Jesus tells the parable about the proud Pharisee and the humble sinner who both went to the temple to pray.

This Week...

The prayer of the lowly is always heard. Proud prayers, however, are not as effective. Every sinner can take comfort knowing that sincere and simple prayers are heard despite the sins of a past life. Paul knows this. He is all alone, exhausted by life, and he writes from prison, looking back at all he has been through, still confident that Jesus will be there for him.

For Your Reflection...

- Some people like just salt on their food and other people like only pepper. Like black and white, salt and pepper seem to be opposites. But some people like them both and use them together, as complements to each other's flavor. The proud Pharisee and the humble sinner seem to be opposites, but they can also be seen as complements as well.
- The proud Pharisee was able to understand the good things about himself. This gave him confidence to pray in thanksgiving for his blessings.
- It's good to be thankful for blessings, but Jesus would probably say the proud Pharisee took a bit too far. Why do you think so?
- The humble sinner was able to understand the flaws in himself. But still he had the confidence to pray for forgiveness and mercy. It's good to be aware of all your flaws, but a person could take this a bit too far as well.
- Do you think Jesus wants us to focus only on our sinfulness, and to be obsessed with being an unworthy, "second-class" citizen? Why or why not?
- Is it possible to have a healthy humility in your place on earth as a servant of God? What would that look like? How would you know when you had achieved such a balance?
- By the way, which one do you like better-- salt or pepper? Or do you like them both? Do you see them as opposites or complements? Black and white or shades of gray?
