February 13, 2011 - Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

World Marriage Day is a reminder to 'Love one another'

World Marriage Day is a special day sponsored by the World Marriage Encounter, with roots in Baton Rouge, La. In 1981, couples encouraged their mayor, governor and bishop to proclaim St. Valentine's Day as "We Believe in Marriage Day." By 1982, 43 governors across the nation proclaimed the day and the name was changed to its current form in 1983. Pope John Paul imparted an apostolic blessing on World Marriage Day in 1993.

The permanent theme for World Marriage Day is a commandment given by Jesus in John 14, speaking in a simple but challenging way of making that daily decision to love your spouse.

The second Sunday of February, this year Feb. 13, marks the annual day that salutes the beauty of faithfulness, sacrifice and joy in married life.

Ware meant to be a sign to the church of God's love. And like all the sacraments in the church, they need to be talked about, honored and understood.

The nice thing about World Marriage Day, is that it celebrates all marriages — whether they are blissful or difficult, new or decades long.

Prayer of the couples:

"Father, as we celebrate World Marriage Day, we thank you for your tremendous gift of the sacrament of marriage. Help us to witness to its glory by a life of growing intimacy. Teach us the beauty of forgiveness so we may become more and more one in heart, mind and body. Strengthen our dialogue and help us become living signs of your love. Make us grow more in love with the Church so we may renew the body of Christ. Make us a sign of unity in the name of Jesus, our Lord and Brother. Amen."* — Montfort Father Bill Dilgen

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Holy Father's Prayer Intention for February 2011

General: That the family may be respected by all in its identity and that its irreplaceable contribution to all of society be recognized.

Missionary: That in the mission territories where the struggle against disease is most urgent, Christian communities may witness to the presence of Christ to those who suffer.

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS (RCIA)

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults classes will continue on Tuesday, at the Parish Apartment at 59 Denham Thompson Way, Apt. 2B (downstairs right).

INDIAN FOOD SALE THANK YOU

A big thank you to all who assisted with the Indian Night Food Sale two Fridays ago. Special thanks to Messrs Agnelo and Baptiste Fernandes and the staff of Old Gaol Restaurant who prepared the food. Thanks also to Mr. Jeremy who did a great job with helping to get the word out.

Thanks also to the servers and all who supported us in any way. We were able to make a very good profit and all of this will be going toward WYD 2011 in Madrid, Spain. Please continue to support the upcoming meals: Cajun Night on Feb. 25 and the Lenten Fish Fry each Friday starting on March 11.

Please continue to spread the word, as the more people we have the easier it will be for our young people to afford to attend this special pilgrimage.

FROM THE MUSIC DIRECTOR'S DESK

BLESSED ARE THE HUSBAND AND WIFE WHO CONTINUE TO BE AFFECTIONATE, CONSIDERATE, AND LOVING AFTER THE WEDDING BELLS HAVE CEASED RINGING.

Visit our website: www.saint-ignatius-cayman.org for more announcements and updates on what's happening in our Parish.

World Marriage Day, held each year on the second Sunday in February, honors the lifelong commitment of husband and wife. World Marriage Day activities such as our Parish's Blessing of Couples and Couple's Dinner, provide the visible sign of support couples need to continue to make the daily decision to love one another.

In these changing times Catholics excited that the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops published a pastoral letter on marriage in November 2009 placing more emphasis on the important Sacrament of Matrimony.

All are encouraged that you will review the information on the USCCB website. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (www.usccb.org) continues to place emphasis on the importance of the Sacrament of Matrimony in the life of the church today through the www.foryourmarriage.org website. We encourage all to view the "For Your Marriage" website and go to the USCCB website (www.usccb.org) to download, read and incorporate the Pastoral Letter into our daily lives.

Twenty eight years ago, Worldwide Marriage Encounter began encouraging a celebration of marriage on the second Sunday of February. In 1983 it was designated World Marriage Day as a day to honor the husband and wife as head of the family, the basic unit of society. It salutes the beauty of their faithfulness, sacrifice and joy in daily married life.

PRAYER FOR OUR MARRIAGE

Heavenly Father,

We thank you for your tremendous gift of the Sacrament of Marriage.

Enable us to grow in our intimacy with You and with each other.

Teach us the beauty of forgiveness so we may become more and more one in heart, mind and body.

Strengthen our communication with each other,
and help us to be examples of commitment, love and service to our families and children.

Make us a sign of the unity which Jesus prays for at the Last Supper.

We open ourselves to the guidance of Your Holy Spirit, who empowers us to love in Jesus' name and walk in His footsteps.

Amen.

10 Pointers for Prayer in Your Marriage

The baby's crying, the dog is whining, and you need to leave for work in five minutes. Finding time for prayer can seem impossible. Amid the busyness of family life, how can one respond to God's ongoing invitation to speak with and listen to Him? Here are ten pointers to help you do just that.

1. Pray as you can, not as you can't. God calls most Christians to an active life in the world, with family, work and community responsibilities. Such a call, while holy, does not usually allow for long periods of prayer and reflection. Lay people can become discouraged when they try to pray like a cloistered contemplative. Be realistic about what's possible.

2. Take ten — or twenty. If a half hour for prayer isn't possible, how about ten minutes, or twenty? Choose a good time of day and stick with it. Designate a special site for prayer so that spot become holy. Spouses can help by mind-ing children during respective quiet times.

3. Pray as a family. Build upon rituals such as grace before meals. In addition to the usual "Bless us, O Lord..." encourage family members to offer thanks for the blessings of the day, as well as prayers for those in need. Couples can deepen their spiritual relationship by taking a few minutes, perhaps before bedtime, to commend to God the joys and sorrows of the day.

4. Decorate your domestic church. When we enter our parish church, the statues and pictures focus our minds on Jesus, Mary and the saints. We can create an atmosphere for prayer in our home- the domestic church- by displaying a crucifix, icons, the Bible and other holy objects. Take the children to a religious goods store and let them choose a picture or statue for their rooms.

5. Short prayers count, too. When you're stopped at a long light or put on hold, consider it as God's invitation to turn your heart and mind to him, if only for a few seconds.

6. Find God at work. Connecting with God in the workplace takes effort. Try to cultivate a few simple habits. For example, offer the day to God as you turn on your computer, or pray for the person you're about to call or wait upon.

7. Jump start your prayer life. Sooner or later almost everyone experiences dryness in prayer. God seems far away and prayer becomes a burden. Praying with Scripture, perhaps the daily Mass Readings can help us focus. So, too, can an inspirational book, especially one of the spiritual classics. A good choice is St. Francis de Sales' Introduction to the Devout Life, written specifically for lay people who are striving for holiness.

8. Ask your Mother for help. The Blessed Virgin Mary, our spiritual mother, understands our needs and offers profound comfort. One family, gathered around the bedside of their dying husband and father, found peace and healing through the recitation of the rosary. The rosary is ideal for the family since children can be taught the simple prayers at an early age. Check out instructions on how to pray the Rosary.

9. Read a good story. Children and adults alike enjoy an inspiring story, and few stories are more compelling than those of the saints. Whether it's the little way of Therese of Lisieux or the heroism of Maximilian Kolbe, their stories offer something for everyone. Consider the particular virtue that a saint demonstrates and pray for help to emulate it. Perhaps it's the humility of St. Francis of Assisi, the patience of St. Monica, or the courageous witness of St. Thomas More.

10. Walk with a spiritual friend. Prayer can lead to new thoughts and questions. Who better to share them with than a spiritual friend? A friend can help us to work through the concerns that inevitably arise in prayer. Good friends will hold each other accountable for their prayer life, making sure that prayer has not been neglected in the busyness of life. For married couples a spouse is often this spiritual friend, but God will also put wise and holy people in our path when we need them. They can be the answer to prayer.

Stella Maris Consecration — Cayman Brac

Over 200 people attended the Consecration Mass of Stella Maris at 4:00 pm last Saturday, February 5th. Archbishop Allen Vigneron was presiding, assisted by his secretary, Fr. Charles Fox. Priests concelebrating were Fr. Paul Ballien, Fr. Mike Molnar, and Fr. James Teeling. They were assisted on the altar by Deacon Joe Biggs, Brother Damian, Joe Mascarenhas, and a number of altar boys.

Special guests were the Deputy Premier, Mrs. Juliana O'Connor-Connolly, and Sister Islands MLA Moses Kirkconnell. There were also a number of overseas visitors, friends and family members of the late Msgr. John Meaney.

The combined choir (St. Ignatius, Christ the Redeemer and Stella Maris) was ably led by Albert Chin. Soloists were Krista Wight, Quincy Brown, and Anita Wheaton.

During the mass both the Archbishop and the Deputy Premier made several references to Stella Maris - Star of the Sea, and the connection to Cayman's seafaring heritage. They reminded the congregation that the church will serve as a light for the local community.

Fr. Paul gave the vote of thanks, ensuring that Elie Kozaily (designer), Todd Davey-Executive Homes (contractor), and Arney and Janet Scott (family land acquired for the project) all received proper recognition.

Many parishioners from Grand Cayman were in attendance, including 122 who traveled over on the charter for the day. The group enjoyed an island tour which included stops at the Cayman Brac Museum, the Stake Bay Chapel, and Long Beach. All enjoyed a delicious lunch buffet at the Brac Reef Beach Resort and a nice reception after the mass at the Alexander Hotel. A number of other parishioners spent a few days in the Brac, enjoying the relaxed atmosphere.

The 3355 square foot church sits on the bluff off Alta Vista Drive in Cotton Tree Bay. The entire site is on 1.8 acres, and it includes 48 paved parking spaces and a 3000 gallon cistern.

Stella Maris will have Mass (when a priest is on island) or Eucharistic services each Sunday at 11:00 am. Other special events will be announced through the bulletin and/or the parish website. Many more photos of the special day will be available soon on the parish website and on a DVD that Joe Mascarenhas is preparing. For further information on Stella Maris, please contact 948-2271 or 916-1687.

THANK YOU FROM THE STELLA MARIS CONGREGATION!

The Stella Maris Congregation would like to thank everybody at St. Ignatius and Christ the Redeemer, especially the choir, for making the Stella Maris church dedication the most beautiful and special event we could have ever dreamt about. We feel truly blessed by the love you have all shown us by being with us; and others on Grand Cayman who were with us in prayer. We look at Stella Maris as the "Lighthouse" of Faith, appropriately located on the Bluff, waiting to welcome you to celebrate Mass with us.

With Love from the Stella Maris Congregation (Cayman Brac)

40th ANNIVERSARY "MUG-A-THON" AGAIN NEXT WEEKEND

We have just over 60 mugs remaining, and they are all looking for a good home and a nice, cozy cupboard to live in! Please see May in the church office to purchase mugs. Mugs will also be on sale again after all masses next weekend — the FINAL weekend that mugs will be sold at masses! Cost is $5. All proceeds are in support of the Year 11 fundraising efforts for prom/graduation in June.

SECOND ANNUAL GOLF SCRAMBLE

Our second annual GOLF SCRAMBLE takes place on Friday, March 25th at the North Sound Club. It will be a four person scramble format, with a 1:00 pm start. Parishioners, students, parents & staff are encouraged to play. The tournament will be limited to 80 participants. There will be lots of great prizes and food/beverages at the conclusion of the event! Registration is $125 for members of the North Sound Club and $175 for non-members. Please see the school or parish websites for flyers and registration forms!

Those persons interested in serving on the planning committee OR volunteering to assist in any way, please contact Jeremy.rice@st-ignatius.com. Please also contact Jeremy if you would like to donate any prizes for the event OR if your business would like to be a sponsor for this event. Proceeds will support the school/parish development funds.

'CAJUN' DINNER NIGHT—FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 25

The next dinner theme night (food sale) takes place on Friday, February 25th from 5:00-8:00 pm in the school canteen. There will be delicious Cajun food (full details next week), dessert and drink, all for $10. Dine in or take out. All proceeds are in support of the August trip to World Youth Day in Madrid. To offer any assistance or for further information, please contact the parish office on 949-6797.

PLEASE REMEMBER THE SCHOLARSHIP FUND!

The St. Ignatius/Dorothy Rice Memorial Scholarship Fund assists families who cannot afford the full tuition (about $8000 per year) at St. Ignatius School. Donation envelopes are available in the slots at the main entrance of the Church, as well as from the office. The envelopes can be dropped in the collection, sent in by mail, or dropped off to the office. If paying by cheque, please make your donation payable to St. Ignatius-SAYM. Thank you for your ongoing support!
